Dear Harold:

A brief note to go with the enclosed.

No time to comment on many things, but the appellate judgment in favor of you and Jim certainly is impressive. Let's hope it works out as it should.

No sign here of any activity on Lane's part. We'll continue to watch for it.

I've finally done a review of Howard's book, ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ givng it first billing in a triple review along with Sylvia's reprint and the Randon House anthology edited by Scott, Hoch and Stetler. I don't have the new edition of Howard's book, but understand it was brought out by A.S. Barnes. Please correct me if that's wrong. Also, I need to know the price of the new edition. Please jot it down on a note in your next mailing, thanks.

Nothing new to reoort here. The STM West continues to flourish and feels fine.

Best from us both,

Jim
